

George Washington School

Principal's Book Pick

November 2017

Dear George Washington Learning Community Members,

I am excited to introduce to you our next Principal's Book Pick of this year, The Jelly Donut Difference: Sharing Kindness with the World by Maria Dismundy. Leah and Dexter are brother and sister. They don't always get along. In fact, there are times they can be downright mean to each other. The ooey, gooey jelly donuts in this story are a testament to the power of kindness, caring and generosity.

Find out if Leah and Dexter will ever learn to get along! See how they "bite" into the power of paying it forward. After reading the story, try to do a small act of kindness at school and at home. I would love to hear all about your random act of kindness and the outcome. Please take the time to complete the attached "Be the Difference Challenge". I would love to read about how you made a difference.

Happy reading!

Fondly,

Mrs. Notti

Name: _____

The Jelly Donut Difference

Be the Difference Challenge

Directions: With a parent or teacher's help, find a way you can help in your community and dedicate your talent, time, or treasures to make a difference in your community.

A need in our community:

Ways I can help solve this problem:

How I ended up making a difference:

What I learned from this experience: